

Consent Form – Parent or Care Giver on Behalf of a Child or Young Person

Relationships Australia Tasmania (RA Tas) collect some basic personal information about your child and/or young person, which may include name, contact information, date of birth, gender and indigenous status, etc. as well as information your child and/or young person is seeking to address.

We receive funding from State or Commonwealth Governments to provide services. As part of their funding, they may require us to provide them with general information about people using our services and whether the services are helpful. Funding bodies cannot access identifying details like your name when they get this general information. In other words, your child and/or young person cannot be identified when this information is provided to our funders.

RA Tas respects your privacy and is committed to ensuring personal information is managed in accordance with the Australian Privacy Principles and relevant legislation related to privacy and children and young people.

RA Tas is an accredited safeguarding children and young people organisation. One of the ways we ensure that we are keeping children safe is the ability for Managers and Senior Worker to view, via secure 'livestreaming' technology, sessions where children and young people are alone with a practitioner. These sessions may be viewed in real time, and are not saved for later viewing, nor available to any other staff members.

The RA Tas practitioner will provide you with feedback from the child and/or young person's session, in the best interest of the child and/or young person.
